CAREER PROSPECTUS

1. Taxation Manager

Almost every medium-level company requires a person to take care of its taxation matters. It is a senior position depending on the size of the company. In case of notices from the department and other legal matters, a person with good representation skills is also required. This makes it one of the most suitable career opportunities in GST.

2. Taxation Research Analyst

This profile is for large corporations. They have complex structures and transactions. They need a person to look at the contract from a taxation point of view.

3. Reconciliations

Large incorporations need a person who can reconcile the sales, purchase, and input tax credit. Wrong feeding into GST return can have disastrous consequences.

4. GST Compliance Practice

A small business can't afford to have a dedicated person for GST compliances. They outsource their compliances to compliance professionals. Even some large businesses also outsource their compliances as they don't want to maintain a large team.

5. GST Consultancy Practice

Corporates need constant for various transactions. It is hard to implement and interpret the law in a practical situation. Deep knowledge of not only the GST law but also of other relevant laws is required.

6. GST Department

The GST department also needs trained staff. The Taxation department has a huge responsibility of collecting correct taxes. They hire people with deep knowledge of the law.

7. GST Practitioner

GST law allows a GST practitioner to perform certain functions for the taxpayers. You need to qualify for an exam conducted by the NACIN.

8. GST Trainer

GST is included in the syllabus of most universities. Many professionals also get GST training to get leverage in their careers. This opens a new area to try your chance. GST qualified professionals can try in training and teaching.
