

Gender Equity 2023-24

Gender equity is a fundamental principle of our institution's ethos and the institution is committed to ensuring equality in access, opportunities, and resources for all genders, fostering a culture of mutual respect and empowerment.

- There are Gender-neutral policies in admission and recruitment processes to ensure fair representation of all genders.
- The institution provides gender-sensitive infrastructure to cater to the diverse needs of all genders:
  - Separate restrooms for men, women, and gender-neutral facilities.
  - Common rooms for female students with basic amenities.
  - Enhanced campus security through CCTV surveillance and security personnel.
- Government Rajindra College organizes various activities to promote Gender equity time to time . Some of them are as below:
  - CSSR NIHS sponsored international workshop cum conference on women, social innovation & entrepreneurship.
  - Department of History Organized Programme on Orientation of girls Regarding self care and Hygiene.
  - Breast Cancer seminar was organized to aware women about the problem.
